Lenten Appeal

Our Lenten Appeal this year is supporting Edmund Rice Beyond Borders. This is a network of Edmund Rice Schools from all over the globe working to promote solidarity and justice, especially in developing nations.

Edmund Rice Beyond Borders supports and maintains a number of schools throughout Africa, South America and Asia. Along with opening many pathways for students from other Edmund Rice

Schools to work and live in a "home away from home" environment.

The Lenten Appeal always adds excitement and activity to the school. From the numerous bake sales at recess, to the smell of bacon and egg rolls in the morning, there is never a dull moment. The support of the students this year again has been amazing.

With the support of the Homegroup teachers, students have been fundraising in the tried and tested ways, as well as imaginative initiatives like wet sponge throwing. One group of boys were so keen to get involved they organised a sausage sizzle during lunch, bought all the sausages that evening and brought everything into school the next day, where they cooked up a storm. Of course none of this happens without the support of the parents at home, who encourage their sons to play an active role in Social Justice initiatives in the community, along with buying the cake mixes and getting the boys to school early to help with the breakfast stalls.

This year each Homegroup has been assigned the task of raising $300, which is enough to send one child to school for a year in east Africa. This money will provide a uniform, lunch, books and tuition fees for a child that would not be able to afford to go to school otherwise.

To date our leading fundraising House is O'Connor with more than $1200.

Junior School staff, parents and students have also done a great job with an impressive $1900.

Well done to all that have supported our Lenten Appeal. Let's keep the momentum going right to the end of term so we can really make a difference to the lives of some of the most at risk people on the planet.

Easter Liturgies

Both the Junior and Senior Schools have participated in Holy Week Liturgies over the last few days. Today the Cross, draped with a bloodied shroud, stood high on the roof of the senior school alongside the statue of Our Lady and overlooking our service, a reminder of Christ's sacrifice.

I encourage all families to consider attending one or more Easter services over the weekend.

Contacting Teachers

Whilst an email to teachers makes the communication process far easier and faster, parents are asked to understand that they will not always be answered immediately. Teachers are very busy looking after your son and ensuring he is in a safe, nurturing and effective learning environment. So I am requesting that parents to be patient and understanding in regard to this form of communication.

For important issues you are welcome to make an appointment and speak directly with your son's teacher.

Laptops

It has come to my attention that some boys are not in the habit of backing up their laptops. I would ask they develop the habit of doing the following three things each night with their laptop:

1. Backup important files and folders to their Google drive
2. Restart
3. Recharge

It would be appreciated if parents could assist us in getting the boys into this habit.

Parent/Student/Teacher Interviews

A reminder Tuesday April 26 has been set aside for Parent/Student/Teacher Interviews. Parents will receive a Skoolbag App notification next week explaining how to book online.

IPSHA Football Trials

Last week saw five boys represent the College at the IPSHA Football trials. Congratulations to Jimmy Ashbridge, Riley Vidulich, Luke Kraljevic, Alex Morris and Kia Puntigam. The boys were part of large group of 150 students from different schools who trailed. Unfortunately none of the boys were selected in the team but Alex and Kia made the final 22 and just missed selection. A great effort by all the boys.

Little Athletics State Championships

Well done to the following boys who competed in the Little Athletics State Championships last weekend:

- Jesse Garratt – Bronze medal in the Under 10's high jump
- Solomon Tuqiri – 10th place discus
- Alejandro Zanapalis – 14th place 1100m walk

A great effort gentlemen – well done.

CAS Swimming

Congratulations to Bailey Habler and Lucas Young who competed for the senior school at the recent CAS Swimming Championships – they represented the Junior School with pride and made a terrific contribution to the whole team's effort on the night.

Fund Raising

One thing I know about our Waverley boys is that they are incredibly generous. Over the past few weeks the boys have been active with their Lenten pledges and raffle sales. The boys are raised almost $2200 through their pledges and $800 through the raffle. Special mention to William Coates for his hard work in helping out with the raffle.

Mother's Day Mass

An early invitation to our annual Mother's and Grandmother's Mass to be held on Friday May 6 commencing at 12pm followed by lunch at the Junior School. It would be appreciated if you could note the date in your diaries.

Message from the Mothers' Club

The Waverley College Mothers' Club would like to invite all boys from the Junior College to think about that very special Mum, Auntie, Godmother, Grandmother and/or friend in our lives on Mothers' Day, 8 May 2016.

To assist the boys in the Junior College, we have arranged a wonderful range of gifts that you can purchase for that special person. You can see samples of all the gifts on the display table outside of Mrs Coupe's office at the Junior School.

If you would like to order a gift (or many gifts - please feel free to order as many as you would like) please fill in the order form (sent home via your son) and bring it to the school office by Friday 29th April 2016 in an envelope, together with your payment for the gifts. We accept cash or cheque payable to: Waverley College Mothers Club.

We look forward to helping you make your family's Mothers' Day special!

With kindest regards,

Waverley College Mothers Club

Canteen

Just a reminder that the canteen will still be serving breakfast from 8.00am each day. Your support over the next couple of weeks will be greatly appreciated.

Don't forget that by using Flexischools you can order your son's lunch online.

Best wishes to everyone for a happy Easter and a restful break.

Weekly Prayer

The Easter Period is the most important time in the life of the Catholic Church as we remember Jesus's death and resurrection.

Sunday 20th March we celebrated Palm Sunday – Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem.

Thursday 24th March we celebrate Holy Thursday – the night Jesus shared 'The Last Supper', was betrayed by Judas and was arrested.

Friday 25th March we celebrate Good Friday – the day Jesus was sentenced to be crucified, carried his cross up to Golgotha and died for us.

Sunday 27th March we celebrate Easter Sunday – the day Jesus rose from the dead and brought new life to the world.

Lord of life,

We pray for all who bring your word of life

As a light to those in darkness

For those who bring your word of peace

To those enslaved by fear

For those who bring your word of love

To those in need of comfort

Lord of love and Lord of peace

Lord of resurrection life

Be known

Through our lives

and through your power

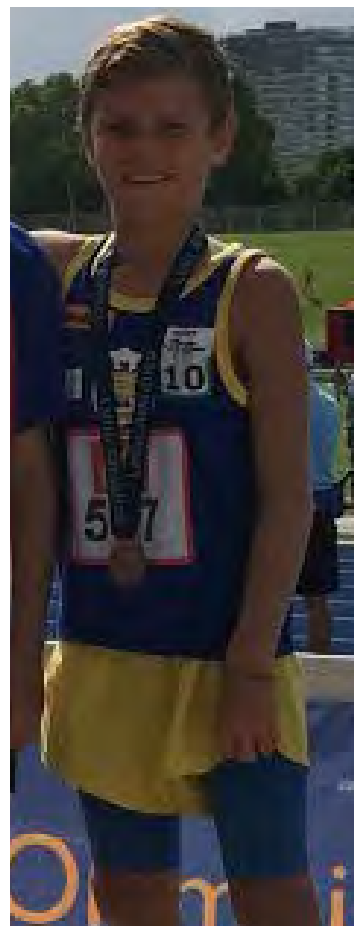

Christ the Lord is risen to-day

ALL: Alleluia!

St Mary of the Cross: Pray for Us

Blessed Edmund Rice: Pray for Us

Holy Week

Living Holy Week following Jesus means learning how to come out of ourselves to reach others, to go to the outskirts of existence, to be the first to move towards our brothers and sisters, especially those who are most distant, those who are most in need of understanding, consolation and help.

There is so much need to bring the living presence of Jesus, merciful and full of love - Pope Francis

Boys were encouraged to keep these words in their mind and reflect in the light of the College's celebration last week of National Action Day against Bullying and Violence.

Some boys need to let go of the need to bring other boys down and to open their hearts and minds to what Pope Francis is challenging us to do - to move closer to our fellow brothers and sisters. Boys were also encouraged to make a final donation to the lenten appeal (Project Compassion) that helps end poverty and promotes justice for the world's poor.

Bullying and Violence

This week we have had an intensive focus during our home group time on bullying. We have looked at strategies and case studies to try and educate our boys on the truths and costs around bullying.

To work and learn in a Catholic community like Waverley, we all must adhere to some basic principles, and accepting bullying is not one of them. We will certainly try hard and work with boys that make poor choices in these areas with counselling, consequences and learning opportunities. But, if these do not make the necessary changes, then continued enrolment at the College will come into question.

The College has the same approach with violence. There is no place for it at Waverley.

To throw a punch at another person's head, neck, chest or spine is simply a gamble with their life. Boys will never know if that person already has a medical condition that they may not even know about. Once punch can kill..... The message is simple - Do not throw punches at Waverley or anywhere else. The College will take action and so will the police.

The College posted our commitment to standing together against bullying and violence on the College's Facebook page last Friday. Over 20,000 people connected with this stance which tells us all that this issue is very important to our community.

Prayers with Belgium

The following was shared in Home Group time with the boys to allay some fears:

Our thoughts and prayers go out to the people of Brussels who suffered a terrorist attack

Earlier this week. Experts say that other attacks are most probable, but the likelihood of being caught up in a terror attack is still remote: far more Londoners have been killed riding bikes in the city than in terror attacks over the past 15 years.

But with the threat hovering, how do we cope? What is the psychological impact? Should we change our behaviour? How do we live in the shadow of terrorism?

Psychological impact

Some experts are concerned that the attacks - and the threat of more to come - will make people feel vulnerable and start making decisions based on fear.

"When something dramatic happens, such as the attacks in Paris, Belgium and Sydney, something called the 'availability heuristic' kicks in," says Dr David Purves, a London based psychologist specialising in trauma and post traumatic stress.

The Paris and Belgium bombings have brought heightened awareness, which can elevate feelings of risk. "People who have a tendency to worry, they are able to ask themselves the questions: could it happen here, what if it happened to me or somebody I care for, how would I feel, could I cope?" ...continued next page...

"These are questions that don't have answers and the fact they don't have answers tends to make people anxious and dwell on them more, going over and over them again. And this makes people feel more at risk."

Traumatisation makes people feel more vulnerable. "It makes you feel it is more likely to happen. And it is being replayed over and over in the media."

"People become a bit more watchful and wary. They start to make decisions based upon fear; shall I go on the train station, or take the bus; shall I get a taxi; shall I even go out? Making a decision based on fear reinforces that anxiety."

Experts say that continuing to live a normal life is one of the best things people can do after a terrorist attack. "One of the many aims of terrorists with an attack is to provoke a disruption of that society. When somebody plants a bomb in Paris or shoots someone on a Tunisian beach, if people say 'I'm not going to go to Paris or Tunisia', it makes future terrorism a more attractive method."

Society needs to make that decision to live as normally as possible, it makes the likelihood of terrorism succeeding more remote.

Don't turn on each other

One of the aims of a terrorist attack like the one on Paris and Belgium, is to sow discord in society particularly between Muslim and non-Muslim communities. Research shows that after a global incident like the Paris attacks, there is a rise in harassment of Muslims in western countries.

"Scapegoating Muslim communities for these incomprehensible acts of extremism simply fuels more hatred, more hostility and more suffering. Rather than allowing terrorism to polarise, we should instead use these atrocities to remind ourselves of the shared sense of humanity that unites people living in diverse societies," says Professor Neil Chakraborti, director of the Leicester Centre for Hate Studies.

Public figures such as Australian television presenter Waleed Aly, who penned, "you will not have my hatred", have urged people not to let Isis win by causing hatred.

Report suspicious behaviour

According to experts, in the last 15 years many planned terrorist attacks have been foiled because members of the public gave information to police about people acting strangely. Behaviour people should report includes people buying ingredients that might be used in bomb-making, and the radical transformation of someone's political views in ways that lead you to believe they might be drawn to violence.

Know what to do in the event of an attack

Like Waverley's Lockdown policy, "run and hide" is the advice given by the UK national counter-terrorism security office (NACTSO) rather than "play dead" - "escape if you can, insist others leave with you and leave belongings behind - silence phones and when safe, ring emergency services".

"People understandably have an anxiety, but terrible as these attacks are, we have to keep them in proportion. Statistically you're overwhelmingly safe from terrorism, remembering that enables us to have a proportionate response."

Uniform - Transition to Winter

It has started to get colder this week and boys have started to wear an array of tops to fend off the cold. In Term 2 we officially move to the College's winter uniform with blazer and ties mandatory. If boys are cold the College jumper or blazer are the only acceptable items they can wear at school and to and from school. Hoodies, sports jackets, spray jackets are not acceptable. Raincoats can be worn to and from school and we encourage boys to use an umbrella on wet days. Please support the College policy on uniform. It does make a difference to how they present, feel and act.

I wish every member of our community a happy Easter.

Feedback, Reporting and Reflection

Waverley's learning philosophy is to liberate the potential of every learner. Our aim is to ensure that all boys can achieve growing academic success by all its measures. Feedback and reporting is essential in helping our students reach their learning goals. A key element of achieving success is resilience and building capacity for continuous reflection.

As Term 1 draws to a close, Year 7-11 students have completed their first cycle of assessment tasks and our teachers are finalising progress reports.

Our reports provide information to help parents start the conversation with their sons about their work in individual subjects and how to support them in looking ahead.

More important than any mark or grade, is the conversation at home and at school with our boys that gets them thinking about the specifics of their efforts and helping them develop strategies that will make a difference for future learning.

When looking at these reports, I encourage the boys to be actively reflective, be proud of their achievements and acknowledge areas requiring further development.

Should there be areas that need attention, rather than focus on the mark, boys should think about strategies that will improve the quality of their work. Ask themselves such things as:

'Does this report reflect my understanding or my effort in each subject?'

'What will I do differently next time?'

Regardless of where your son is at in his learning journey, report time provides an opportunity for you to have that conversation with your son about how you can support him looking ahead. I encourage parents to acknowledge the positive aspects of the report as well as tackle those areas that need improvement. Talk about strategies he has used that have resulted in successful outcomes and then challenge him to assess his approach to those subjects of concern. Encourage him to set some goals and then discuss these at the upcoming teacher Parent Teacher interviews.

In preparation for interviews, it's beneficial to be fully abreast of your son's pattern of study, be aware of the topics studied and any assessments completed. Have a sense of how much home study your son is doing and if he is using this time productively.

At parent teacher interviews, it is also a good idea to jot down notes. Each subject will have different recommendations, tips and advice. Ask for specific areas that need developing and strategies for improvement. For example,

"What particular topics need attention?"

"Did he fall down with his paragraph construction or with his grammar/spelling?"

"Did he perform better in the practical or theory component of the assessment?"

"How much time should he be spending on his major work compared to theory?"

"What can he do to improve his approach?"

"What can I do to assist at home?"

To conclude, some simple yet effective home strategies that will make a difference to your son's future learning achievements are; create a workspace conducive to quality home study, design a plan that will help manage his workload/extra-curricular commitments and above all keep the conversation open.

Progress Reports / Interview Booking Sheets

Year 7-11 Progress Reports and Parent Teacher Interview Booking sheets will be posted online via the Parent Portal on Sentral. An email will be sent early Week 10 with the link and reminder instructions.

Parent Teacher interviews will be held on:

Tuesday 5th April, 1.30-7pm for Year 8, 10 and 11.

Wednesday 6th April, 1.30-7pm for Year 7 and 9.

Acting Director of Curriculum

From the Head of Religious Studies : In-Focus Conference

The Studies of Religion In-focus Conference is an interfaith initiative to resource teachers in their teaching of Studies of Religion in both the Preliminary and HSC Course. This year the topic was Living Religious Traditions in the 21st Century.

The conference took place in Sydney on Friday 4 March and I was asked to present a workshop on "How to help your students stand out in their HSC responses". I invited two outstanding members of the class of 2015 to assist me in my presentation, Caitlin Madeira who was the College Captain of St Clare's College in 2015 and Adam Hegedus of Waverley College 2015 and First in State in Studies of Religion II. Both of these students were awarded the Premier's Award for All-round Excellence in their HSC.

Caitlin and Adam were excellent ambassadors for both schools and captivated the audience with their enthusiasm, advice and ability to articulate how to grapple with the demands of the HSC. I engaged them in a Q & A session and what interested and surprised most teachers present was their answer to the question: "Is the HSC more about collaboration or competition?". Both advised that in collaboration and the sharing of resources they gained great insights across all their subjects.

The Studies of Religion II cohort from Waverley College and St Clare's College engaged in a combined seminar and afternoon tea at Waverley College as part of their preparation for the HSC in 2015. Together with Mr Dominic Hearne and Ms Catherine Stewart we shared our wisdom, experience and knowledge of the course with the group and I believe that it helped to give them more strategies to make their responses stand out.

Caitlin and Adam are pursuing their tertiary studies at UNSW and take a great appreciation of their respective schools to their life beyond the HSC.

Lenten Appeal

Many thanks to all the staff, students and parents who have been involved with the Lenten Appeal fundraising over the last six weeks. The funds will go to Edmund Rice charities throughout Australia, South America and Africa. The proceeds from the Mufti Day will go towards Caritas Australia.

Many students showed a lot of initiative in the ways they chose to raise money for these worthwhile causes.

I have seen first hand the excellent work that the Christian Brothers do in the Majority World. In Nairobi, the Ruben Centre offers free healthcare to people living in Mukuru slum. In Bolivia, the Brothers offer educational opportunities to street children. Our flexi-learning centres in Australia provide education for young people who cannot function in a normal school environment.

It is gratifying to know that we can help support these excellent initiatives.

Outreach

The Street Retreat scheduled for next Wednesday has been postponed until next term. Year 11 students will be notified of the alternative date.

Blood donations

The Red Cross shuttle bus will operate from the start of next term. Each week seven Year 11 students will travel to the city to donate blood. This is one of the most worthwhile opportunities offered through the Service Program. I commend the blood donors on their bravery and selflessness.

The College views the study of music as an essential part of each student's development. The extension of this study through private tuition on an instrument is strongly encouraged because of the flow on benefits to performance in other academic areas.

Students who have lessons at school are welcome to book in to use a practice room during lunchtime or after school subject to availability.

Students who attend private lessons need to have their own instruments. Anyone who attends drum lessons needs to bring their own drum sticks. Guitarists need to bring their own instrument to their lesson and for any practice sessions.

Attendance at Lessons

It is the responsibility of the student to ensure he attends his music lesson. In the event of a student or teacher absence, excursion or examination commitments, the following guidelines apply:

1. Student Absence

A student will forfeit the lesson if the tutor has not been given at least 24 hours notice of an absence. Make up lessons can only be provided when 24 hours notice has been given.

2. Tutor Absence

Where possible, pupils will be notified in advanced of a tutor's absence. A new lesson time will be negotiated in the case of unforeseen illness which cannot be notified in advance.

3. Excursions, Examinations, Class Tests

A minimum of 48 hours notice is required to reschedule a lesson. A student's failure to notify the Music Faculty / Tutor will incur the cost of the cancelled lesson.

Cessation of Tuition

Private lessons cannot be cancelled during term. Students must be committed to learning the instrument for the entire semester. In the event of a student wishing to cease tuition, one full term's notice is required in writing.

Paris Exchange 2016

Last year the school took part in an exchange programme with a prestigious school in Paris. The French school has run this program for many years with a couple of other girls' and boys' schools in Sydney. Due to the popularity, the numbers have increased and consequently they needed another school and therefore approached Waverley College.

A couple of boys took part last year and had an amazing experience.

This year we have decided to not only offer this opportunity to our French students but also to any Year 10 student that is potentially thinking about picking up French Beginners in Year 11 or quite simply would like the experience of travelling to Europe and being immersed in another culture.

It is a reciprocal exchange in that they send a student over from 18 June to 23 July and then our students go over in the Christmas holidays for the same length of time. This means that the main cost is the airfare as the host family in each country covers the other costs: food, board etc.

We are really keen for this exchange to be an integral part of the French program and therefore welcome any families that are interested in taking up this unique experience.

Please contact me if you are interested and/or would like some more information on: srichards@waverley.nsw.edu.au

Merci beaucoup!

Free Spanish Evening Classes for Parents

A Call for Expressions of Interest

The Spanish program at Waverley is now in it's second year and is continuing to grow. In our endeavour to further promote language learning, the Languages Department is planning on offering an evening class for parents.

The Parental Polyglots course will enable us to provide a Spanish taster course to parents who have no prior knowledge of the language and would like to further support their son with their Spanish studies.

This fun, intensive and free course will take place in Term Three for the duration of eight weeks. The course is likely to run on a Thursday evening from 6.30pm until 8pm.

We have 18 places available, which will be awarded to the first keen parents to apply. Your son does not have to be studying Spanish at the moment for you to be eligible for the course.

If you are interested in joining this short free course or have any questions please email Suzanne Richards on srichards@waverley.nsw.edu.au.

Congratulations to our Surf Life Saving champions

Last week's Surf Life Saving NSW State Titles saw a number of Waverley College students achieve success in both the Nippers and Open competitions.

Historically, a large number of our students are involved in Surf Life Saving because of our proximity to the coastline. Surf Clubs are a great part of the local community not only by saving lives, but encouraging life long physical activity.

Surf Life Saving Australia patrol 12,000 beaches, 36,000 kilometres of coastline and over 100 million visitors to our beaches annually.

Waverley College supports Surf Life Saving by granting exemptions to boys who submit an application to the Head of College two weeks before the exemption date. All boys at the College are eligible to apply for two days of leave from their Co-curricular sport or activity each year.

Congratulations to all of our students (and some staff) who contribute to this iconic Australian community service.

Our newest triathlete - Daniel Morris

On Wednesday 2 March 2016, Daniel Morris from Year 11 competed in the NSW All Schools Triathlon where students from High Schools all over NSW came to compete at the Penrith International Regatta Centre.

He participated in the Seniors Race which consisted of students aged 16, 17, 18 and 19. Fortunately, the race was scheduled for an early start so the temperature was only 30 degrees! Daniel said, "I had a great swim, good bike and ok run. Overall, I came 1st in the CAS category, 2nd in my age group and 20th overall out of 150 people". Well done, Daniel

Don't Forget to Check Out our New Rugby App

Waverley College's Co-Curricular Directorate is trialing a free app this winter for all rugby teams and their supporters. 'Team App' is a platform that will allow our rugby community to improve communication by integrating everything one needs to know about rugby at Waverley College including:

- News
- Fixtures
- Competition Ladders
- Selection News
- Player Profiles
- Live Scores
- Photos

So if you would like to access this information on your device or smart phone simply download this free App. Team App is available on both Apple and Android devices. Once you have done this search for Waverley College Rugby. The College will then authenticate you giving access.

Should the trial be a success we hope to expand the function to include all Co-Curricular sports and activities.

2016 NSW Premier's Reading Challenge

The NSW Premiers Reading Challenge (PRC) is now underway for 2016. Boys in Year 7 and new participants in Years 8 and 9 are now being issued with their new User ID and password to access their reading logs on the NSW PRC website. This week, we have also published our second Recommended Reads brochure to guide the boys in selecting suitable books to read.

While it is early days, a number of boys are making great progress and have already read several books. It is not too late to register and participate. If interested in participating or you want further details, please visit the library.

Tips on completing the NSW Premiers Reading Challenge

Boys do not need to take part in the NSW Premiers Reading Challenge in order to benefit from these tips. The goal is to encourage boys to challenge themselves while they read, but also to make reading part of the regular routine.

- Push up the time that you allocate to reading
 - Use the time spent travelling to and from school or read for 15 minutes each day before going to bed. Instead of reading for 15 minutes a day, aim to read for 20 minutes a day.

- Read a variety of literature - Don't focus on reading books from one genre only. Challenge your mind and read from different genres.
- Identify related books or stories to read - Some books take their inspiration from other books e.g. The Hunger Games.
- Challenge friends - Are friends taking part in the Premiers Reading Challenge? Encourage them to take part and aim to see who can finish a book first.
- Have fun. Reading is a pleasurable and relaxing activity. Don't treat it as a chore.

'The Crossover' by Kwame Alexander

"BOLD! EXPLOSIVE! ... I LOVE THE CROSSOVER. EVERYONE WILL." —NICKY GIOVANNI

"With a bolt of lightning on my kicks . . .
The court is SIZZLING.
My sweat is DRIZZLING.
Stop all that quivering. Cuz tonight
I'm delivering," announces dread-locked, 12-year old Josh Bell. He and his twin brother Jordan are awesome on the court. But Josh has more than basketball in his blood, he's got mad beats, too, that tell his family's story in verse, in this fast and furious middle grade novel of family and brotherhood.

Josh and Jordan must come to grips with growing up on and off the court to realize breaking the rules comes at a terrible price, as their story's heart-stopping climax proves a game-changer for the entire family.

From the Convenor of Rugby

Scots Easter 7's Tournament

Waverley College will be sending two teams (Junior & Senior) to compete at the Scots Easter 7's Tournament to be played this Easter Saturday. This is our first involvement in this tournament in a number of years. Both international and local schools will compete over one day in what looks to be an entertaining celebration of rugby. All support is welcome with the first match commencing at 10:00am and the final concluding at 4:30pm in the Scots College school grounds.

Internal Rugby Trials

Last Saturday all age groups were involved in trial matches and skills sessions. I would like to thank the work of the coaching staff that managed to get all the trials organized following a week of poor weather. After losing key preseason sessions, our coaches were able to set trials up and get the boys onto the field in a swift fashion.

It was pleasing to see the strong signs across all age groups, with players putting great efforts in. Unfortunately, we did see a few injuries. Thanks must go to Mark Mitchell (Physiotherapist) for his efforts in managing a very busy medical room.

Team Selections

I appreciate a number of parents have contacted me regarding team selections. Further to this, I anticipate parents will contact me in the coming weeks regarding team selections and the protocol we have in place.

At Waverley College we aim to give all players a fair go in trying to reach their potential (make the highest team possible), however, it can sometimes take time to establish the correct grading of individual players into teams.

Last year, we had students starting off in "D grade" eventually make it to "A grade" half way through the season. Again, this was a process that took time.

We are very fortunate to have two trial rounds this season against Newington (2nd April) and Riverview (30th April) to ensure the teams are well arranged prior to the commencement of the CAS competition.

At the end of the day, we ask all players to strive to do the best for the school in whatever team they may start off in. This will ultimately lead to a greater brand of rugby, more player enjoyment and continued success from the 1st XV to the 13Fs.

Lost Property

Already, lost property is starting to pop up at the conclusion of trainings and Saturday fixtures. Lost property will either be kept at the Queens Park Pavilion (top level) or taken up to the Waverley College Front Office. I highly recommend all players label their kit with their name and a contact number, so any found items can be returned to the owners.

Junior Rugby Camp

During the upcoming Easter Holidays, Waverley College will be running a Junior Rugby Camp. This is for interested students from Years 5 – 9. I encourage all junior rugby players to get there, especially players in A & B teams.

Please note there is a change in dates and times from when the camp is listed in the School Calendar. The camp will now be held on Monday 18th April and Tuesday 19th April (9am – 12pm). Booking can be made through the Trybookings website: (<https://www.trybooking.com/191497>) I encourage those students attending this camp to hang around on Tuesday 19th April, to support our 1st XV who will play against St Patrick's College, Strathfield. Kick off for this match is at 12:15pm. I wish everyone a very safe and restful Easter weekend.
