

HOLIDAY PLANNER FOR STUDENTS

1. Fill this table out at the end of term to see where you are at this point in time.
2. Complete what you can in the holidays. Have a break as well, but the more you can do the better to set yourself up as much as you can for stress-free academic success!

Write the subjects you are studying this year across here and for each question, tick when complete.
a. All of my class notes and digital resources for this subject are well organised and sorted.
b. My study notes are completely up-to-date for this subject and filed away and organised.
c. I have set up a term planner for the coming term and written in all my assessments and done any forward planning or reading or preparation that can be done.
d. I have completed as much as I can of any major works, major essays or tasks that require long term work and planning.
e. I have made a plan for how and when I will complete these tasks by the due dates.
e. I have looked over the course work completed so far and identified any areas of weakness or things I find difficult and have spent some time addressing these.
f. I am now in a really good position to achieve to the best of my ability in this subject.
